

Amun Ra - Amon ra

Here is what the GWB said about Amun Ra - or Amon ra - as they spelled it.

"Amon Ra is one of the created gods, created by superstitious people of long ago. His name has changed over the years as civilisations come and go. He is attributed to having certain powers but, in fact, Amon-Ra is just a figment of imagination which, as is so often the case, has created a sort of entity in the etheric realms.

But he was never a real entity."
